#22 Comment on what the instructor does well (please be specific)

Very interesting class. Midterm & final were nicely done

Introduced new material and topics to us very well.

Very knowledgeable on technology and how to use it to your benefit.

Reach out to the students and help tailor the class to help them better understand.

The class was interestingly structured, the professor knew his stuff, and used numerous assignments to give expose to different IT stuff. Interesting class

I was exposed to way more tools than I ever knew existed. The general, useful subject matter that we discussed everyday was great. Andy seems to know a great deal about how to make your professional life easier. He knew an online tool for everything, a few of which I am already using and loving. I know sooner or later IΓll be able to impress or teach someone something that I learned as a direct result of this class.

Gives out good instructions

Excellent enthusiasm and knowledge pertaining to the material.

very good information and reawl-world examples for IT in nonprofits and the public sector. Great instructor!

#23 Comment on what the instructor could do differently/better (please be specific)

The grading scale was very confusing

I like that the grades are based upon the others in the class, but now everyone is doing a ton of extra credit assignments at the last second, which brings there grade up, and mine down. So I either have to choose to get a lower grade or also do a ton of extra assignments at the last second because of the "class slackers". I would say don't count extra credit towards the class listings.

My only real issue is at the end his grading in blackboard was really messed-up, and confussing.... he knows what we are refering to... so I would just find different ways to show grades

I was pretty confused about how we were to be graded. The syllabus said one thing but he changed it a few times. Andy did take the time to answer all my questions and clearly communicate grading when I asked. I just wish the syllabus would have been a bit more black and white. ThatΓs really my only criticism of the course.

No suggestions

Perhaps not make the course sound so daunting in the beginning of the class when going over the syllabus. It wasn't that hard. But then you should definitely have us do a lot more. Like post once a week on plus or something.
